

BUBBLE REPLACEMENT PROJECT

WASATCH HILLS TENNIS CENTER

February, 2022

Dear Friends, Community Supporters, Tennis Lovers, and Donors:

Our hearts are full of you, so very full of you, and they brim with joy and gratitude over the support you've provided to the center's campaign for a new bubble.

With an original goal of $1,100,000 announced at the end of 2020, this effort raised $1,200,000+ in just 13 months! What's more, we're still counting, and gifts are still welcome.

The donor profile behind this effort is noteworthy, with 225 individual donations representing a broad variety of individuals from throughout the valley and beyond who made donations ranging from $25 to $600,000. Each and every gift counted toward our objective and insured our success, and each and every donor is proudly included in this brochure list of contributors.

That's a remarkable result and in view of the difficulties we all experienced this past year, it's a colossal achievement. And because of volunteer leadership—and sweat—the campaign costs are close to zero, making all of the funds raised available not only for the purposes specified in January 2021, but also for enrichment of the scholarship program created by Bart and Liz Warner to enable community youngsters who otherwise may have never stepped on a court to learn, if not master, the wonderful sport of tennis.

It should also be noted with great appreciation that the core donor to the campaign is the George S. and Dolores Dore Eccles Foundation. In December 2020, that philanthropic organization made a $300,000 challenge grant to stimulate other contributions early on. Then in December 2021, after noting the depth and breadth of our donor pool, the foundation graciously contributed another $300,000 to the cause, with the provision that $100,000 of that amount be used to enhance our scholarship program. Additional donations of note include generous gifts from Bruce and Vera Wood, the Sorenson Legacy Foundation, Eric and Chandra Bergeson, Dwight and Rosemary Marchant, Hank and Pat Hemingway, and the David L. Freed's Youth Tennis foundation. Yet again, we offer thanks to everyone who participated in this effort and who made our triumph possible. Each donor voted for and endorsed the quality programs being presented to the community by the Liberty Park and Wasatch Hills Tennis Centers, and we are mindful of and grateful to all.

As we end this newsletter, an additional and heart-felt salute to the following...

Salt Lake City Council Chair Dan Dugan for his counsel and support. Salt Lake City and the many departments and officials for their assistance. Salt Lake County for their significant financial investment in the new clubhouse set to be completed in 2022. And most of all...

A truly one-of-a-kind volunteer tennis foundation that has donated thousands of hours and given their absolute all to ensure this community investment is a success. Thank you to Bruce Wood, Michele Mattsson, J. Michael Mattsson, David Driggs (Mighty Penguin Consulting), Bryan Stephens (Stephens Management), and Spencer Marchant. Your tenacity, never quit attitude, and desire to preserve these tennis gems in our community is inspiring and Wasatch Hills and Liberty Park Tennis Centers and the thousands of patrons who benefit are all better for it.

Project Update

Mid-April: Four court re-construction set to begin (approx. eight weeks).

Mid-June: Installation of new Broadwell year-round air dome (approx. 2 weeks).

Grand opening TBA: Pending on the status of new clubhouse still under construction (be still our beating hearts).
