

Notice

As is standard business practice in the tennis industry, outside lessons of any kind are NOT ALLOWED and only approved for current Liberty Hills Tennis staff.

A lesson is defined as any one of the following...

- Any money or anything of value being exchanged for someone's time.
- Feeding balls from a basket or cart.
- Instruction being given.
- Hitting lesson of any kind to any level of player.

Exceptions include an immediate family member of a spouse, parent or a sibling.

- A former or current high school player or coach, former or current college player or coach, former professional player or coach, friend, co-worker, student, neighbor, cousin, aunt, uncle, etc. are unfortunately not considered a spouse, parent, or sibling and will not be able to host a lesson at either Liberty Park or Wasatch Hills Tennis Centers.

If you are looking for a year-round coaching position exclusively at Liberty Hills Tennis, please apply at www.libertyhillstennis.com/jobs.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation,

Liberty Hills Tennis
